INFORMATION

Statutory filing provisions are found in Section 1502 of the California Corporations Code, unless otherwise indicated.

Every corporation shall file a statement with the California Secretary of State, within 90 days after filing of its original Articles of Incorporation and (beginning January 1, 2000), biennially thereafter during the applicable filing period. The applicable filing period for a corporation shall be the calendar month during which its original Articles of Incorporation were filed and the immediately preceding five calendar months. Domestic stock corporations that have, or will be organized by filing Articles of Incorporation during the months of January, March, May, July, September and November will be due to file in odd years and those organized in the months of February, April, June, August, October and December will be due to file in even years.

If this is the initial statement or a biennial statement attach the fee of $20. If this filing is a change to any information on an initial statement or a biennial statement there is no fee.

A corporation is required to file a statement even though it may not be actively engaged in business at the time this statement is due.

Failure to file this completed form by the preprinted due date in Item 1 or within 90 days of incorporation will result in the assessment of a $250 penalty. (Section 2204, California Corporations Code, and Section 19141, Revenue and Taxation Code).

For further information, contact the Statement of Officers Unit at (916) 657-3537.
